We would like our website to reflect the essence of CLC South Africa. In order to keep it updated with current news and events, we ask that you send through information about your group activities, as well as any photographs from these events, for posting on the website. We would also welcome any suggestions you may have about the type of material you would like to have posted on our website. Please email your submissions and suggestions to Veronica at veronica.wellburn@polyoak.co.za

CLC Gauteng will be holding a Regional Assembly on Saturday, 9 February, and members of CLC Eastern Cape will gather in Port Elizabeth for their Regional Assembly on Sunday, 10 February. Immediately prior to the EC Assembly on the 10th February, Colleen Callahan will be pronouncing her Permanent Commitment at the 9:30am Mass at her parish of St. Augustine's Cathedral in Port Elizabeth.

CLC SA VISITS BOTSWANA

CLC Botswana will be holding their National Assembly from 24-27 January, and have invited members from CLC SA to join them. Kaye and Sabie, together with Fr Graham Pugin SJ (who serves as EA to Botswana as well) will be attending this gathering. We pray from travelling mercies for them as they journey to Botswana, and hold CLC Botswana in our prayers as they meet for their Assembly.

CLC EDUCATION SUPPORT

We are pleased to announce that the 2018 Grade 12 Maths and Science pupils at the Bophelo Impilo Community Private School achieved a 100% pass-rate in their final exams. Grateful thanks to those CLC members who gave of their time to tutor these pupils.

And at Walmer High Port Elizabeth, the Friday afternoon classes offered by Colleen and Margot to the group of pupils preparing for the 2019 English Olympiad, are going well.

GROUP LEADERS MEET

In a new initiative in CLC Eastern Cape, Group Leaders meet once a quarter for a CLC meeting. On Sunday, 20 January, Christine Hobden and Maryeen Maynard (of CLC East London) joined Colleen Callahan and Kaye Henrick (CLC Port Elizabeth), and Rui Krause (CLC Grahamstown) for a very meaningful and successful meeting.
